What the Critics are Saying:

If I Lie

“Jackson’s debut novel is a strikingly poignant portrayal of a young woman’s struggle to be right in the face of persecution from, not only her peers, but her entire community.” – VOYA

“Relationships and their dynamics play themselves out naturally and with satisfying complexity.” – Kirkus Reviews

“This is an intense and heartbreaking bit of quality realism, putting the stress of life in a small military town during wartime on full display as a pertinent backdrop for more personal drama.” – Bulletin of the Center for Children’s Books

Touched

“Filled with anticipation and drama, paranormal fans will love TOUCHED. The characters are so realistic; you can’t help but imagine yourself as one of them. Thrilling and chilling!” - RT Book Reviews

“A star-crossed romance highlights this series opener about a girl who has paranormal powers to heal and the boy who should be her enemy.” – Kirkus Reviews
